Directions

- Specification: 100ml
- The product is available for normal skin. A sensitive testing is expected to conduct before using for allergic-prone skin or consult for professional advice for other particular features.
- After cleansing, spray the product on your face with a distance of 5 inches or so, dispense in a fine mist spray, which can be effectively distributed and absorbed without leaving a filmy residue. Use it every morning and evening. For sensitive skin, dilute the product first, then spray onto your palm before applying it smoothly over your face.
- The product is not suggested to use with the cosmetics loaded with lead, mercury or hormones.
- For external use only. Please stop using it and consult a doctor if skin sensitivity occurs.

Young & beautiful

As you age, the collagen and hyaluronic acid is running off very fast and the pace of synthesis begins to slow down, resulting in weak self-repair function of the skin and cracked elastic fibers. Thus the skin looks crepey, sagging and far from elastic.
