YIJIA

"When it comes to brain protection,
there is nothing quite like blueberries.
Call the blueberry the brain berry."

- Dr. James Joseph, Ph D,
Lead scientist in the Laboratory of Neuroscience at the USDA
Nutrition Research Center On Aging at Tufts University

Blueberries + Resveratrol

Bluti™ Blueberry Super Juice combines all of the benefits of blueberries with the powerful health benefits of Resveratrol:

- Protecting the endothelial lining of your arteries.
- Reducing oxidative stress, which prevents premature aging of cells.
- Blocking the production of nf kappa b, a powerful, noxious inflammatory agent.
- Cellular support that improves mental function, and promotes oral/dental health.
- Cancer suppression by preventing cancer cell replication and enhancing cancer cell death in a variety of laboratory cell culture studies.
- Muscle health, by reducing muscle wasting associated with diabetes and cancer.

Fucoidan Extract

Fucoidan is a sulfated polysaccharide derived from brown seaweed that has been extensively researched and used in Traditional Chinese Medicine. Benefits may include:

- Strengthens and modulates the immune system.
- Helps fight fatigue.
- Aids in blood flow.
- Is an excellent source of dietary fiber.
- Provides antioxidant activity by inhibiting peroxidation and antiviral activity.
